

ALABAMA'S TOP INTERSECTIONS FOR TRAFFIC CRASHES

A traffic crash is reported every 4 minutes in Alabama, and someone dies every 10 minutes as a result of these crashes.

Here are some of the most dangerous intersections in Alabama:

Skyland Blvd. & McFarland Blvd.

Red Bank Road & U.S. 31

U.S. 31 & Huntsville Browns-Ferry Road

University Blvd. & 28th street

West Oxmoor & Huntington Parc Road

U.S. Highway 280 & State Highway 119

HW 75 & Sweeny Hallow Road

Airport Boulevard & Cody Road

Cottage Hill Road & University Boulevard

Airport Boulevard & Azalea Road/ McGregor Road

The most dangerous highway in Alabama:

in Alabama:

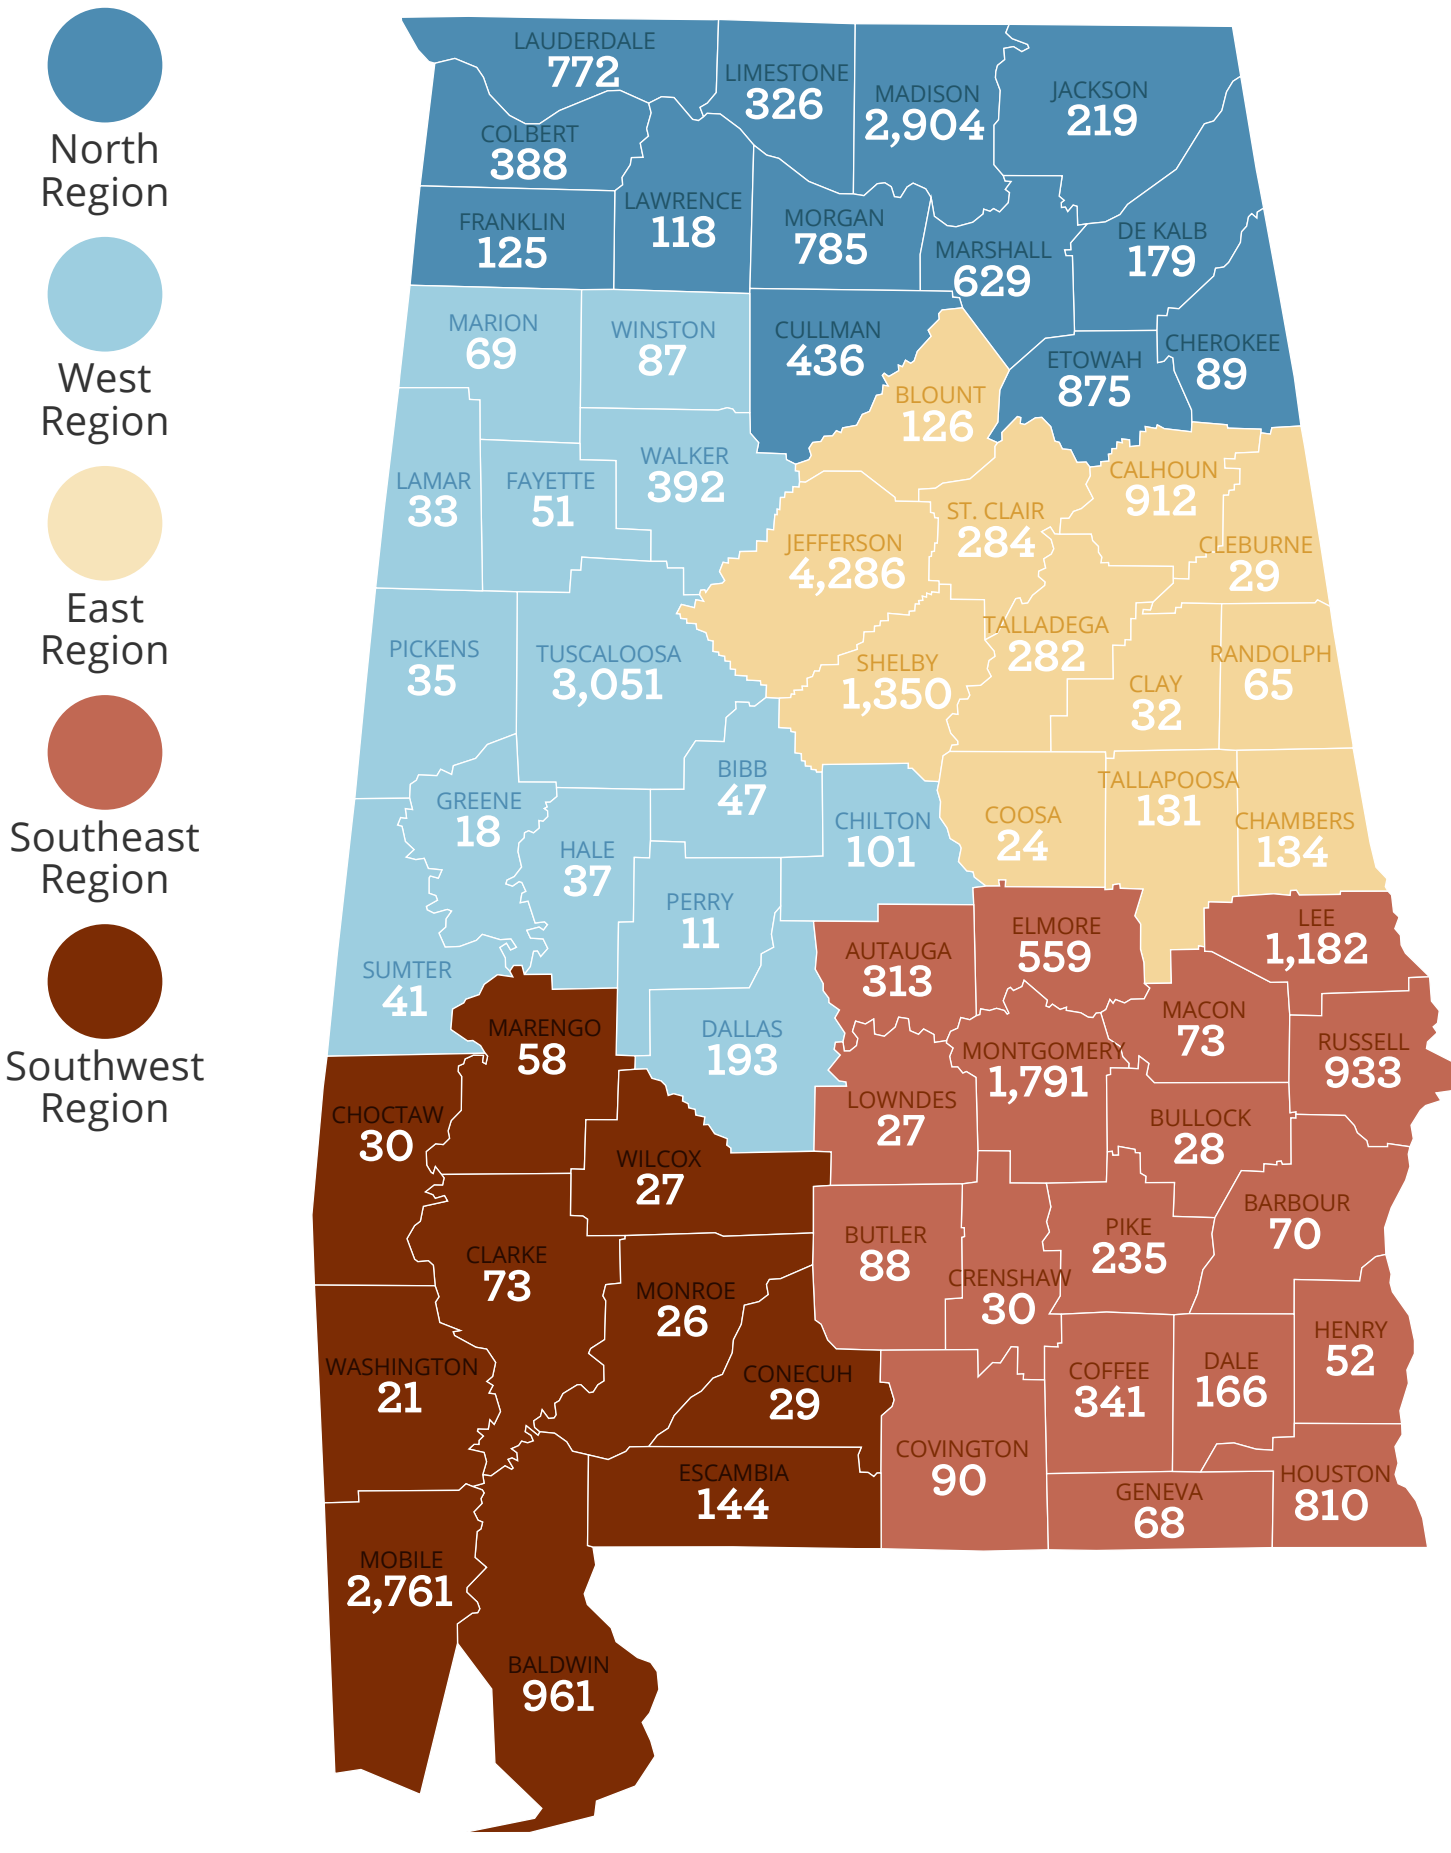

U.S. Highway 431

"Highway to Hell"

Intersection crashes by county:

by county:

How to avoid an accident at an intersection:

at an intersection:

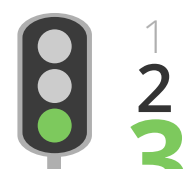

Do

Do pay close attention to your surroundings at all times

Proceed through yellow lights with caution

Do wait 3 seconds before going through a green light

Don't

Don't text and/or use your phone

Don't reach for things in the backseat

Don't take your hands off the wheel

If you or a loved one has been injured in a car accident on one of these dangerous roads in Alabama, reach out to our firm today.

Visit:

martinsonandbeason.com or call 256-533-1667

MARTINSON & BEASON, PC

ATTORNEYS AT LAW SINCE 1937

Sources:

<http://drivesafealabama.org/uploads/files/ALDOT-2014CrashFactsBook.pdf> (2014) | <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8eF7ec9GXR0>
<https://cdan.nhtsa.gov/STSI.htm#> | http://www.al.com/news/index.ssf/2016/03/alabamas_highway_to_hell_ranke.html